MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Communications

SUBJECT : Inspector General's Survey of the Office of Communications

REFERENCE : Memo dtd 4 Dec 68 for D/CO fr DD/S, same subj

1. Subsequent to release of the reference, we received the attached memorandum from the Executive Director-Comptroller. Since it establishes a reporting period of 90 days in lieu of the 60-day period we anticipated, you may, if you wish, adjust the submission of your proposed response from 17 January 1969 to 7 March 1969.

2. While we recognize that separate papers have covered the subjects of Colonel White's subparagraphs 2.b., 2.c., and 2.d., please identify the status of actions on these as well as item 2.a. of his memorandum in making your response.

MEMORANDUM FOR: Director of Communications

SUBJECT : Inspector General's Survey of the Office of Communications

REFERENCE : Memo dtd 4 Dec 68 to D/CO frm DD/S same subject

1. The Executive Director-Comptroller has noted that during the course of the survey you were engaged in reviewing and modifying certain organizational arrangements and practices. The Inspector General's report noted these developments but made no recommendations concerning the course of action being taken, agreeing with the general approach being taken by your office. He would appreciate your comments in the form of summary statements of actions being taken on the following subjects:

a. The possible subordination of OSA communications activities to Office of Communications (paragraph 12, pages 11 and 12);

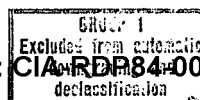

b. A program to raise the grade structure of working-level communicators (paragraph 22, pages 18 and 19);

d. Realignment of the engineering and R&D activities of the Office (paragraph 61, page 44).

2. In view of this added request by the Executive Director-Comptroller, I would appreciate receiving your comments on these requests and on the specific
